ROBIN MORGAN, SHANNON ASHCRAFT
PLACE HIGH IN ANGEL FLIGHT

MISSOULA--

Robin Morgan, a University of Montana coed from Helena, was named Outstanding Angel in the nation recently during the national conclave of the Arnold Air Society and Angel Flight in Dallas, Tex.

Another UM coed, Shannon May Ashcraft, also of Helena, was named the second most outstanding Angel Flight Commander in another competitive division at the national conclave.

Both coeds received their awards for their exceptional leadership, organizational talents and inspiration to others. The University's Angel Flight group also was recognized at the Dallas conclave as the second most outstanding flight in the nation.

Arnold Air Society and Angel Flight are civic, honorary and social organizations affiliated with Air Force ROTC organizations throughout the nation.

Miss Morgan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert M. Morgan, 919 Floweree, Helena, is a 21-year-old junior majoring in liberal arts at the University in Missoula. She is a 1969 graduate of Helena Senior High School.

Miss Ashcraft, also 21, is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil C. Ashcraft, 1121 Leslie, Helena. She is a junior majoring in elementary education at UM and was graduated from Helena Senior High School in 1969.
